

Ending Violence Against Women (EVAW) Project

A Multi-disciplinary Team Approach for Training Criminal Justice Professionals

Presents

Sexual Assault Training

Sponsored By

Archuleta County Sheriff's Department and Victim Assistance

June 19, 2009

Pagosa Springs, CO

Logistics

- Victim and Offender Dynamics
- Sexual Assault Laws
- Interview Techniques
- Investigation of Sexual Assault Cases
- Crime Scene Documentation
- Photographing and Diagramming the Crime Scene
- Evidence Collection
- Forensic Evaluation and SANE

What: FREE Advanced Training

When: June 19, 2009
8:00 a.m.- 5:00 p.m.

Where: Pagosa Fire Protection District
Training Room
191 North Pagosa Boulevard
Pagosa Springs, CO

Who: Law Enforcement and District
Attorney's Office Personnel

The EVAW Team consists of trainers with extensive experience in the fields of domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking. Trainers use a "team approach" to the problems we face when working with cases involving violence against women.

Law Enforcement Trainers:

John Clune and Sheri Vanino of the Victim Justice Initiative

and

Detective Mark Slavsky of the Wheatridge Police Department

CLE Credits Available

POST Credits Available Course Code:
100306

The EVAW Project is a unique collaboration of: The CO District Attorneys Council, The CO Coalition Against Domestic Violence, The CO Coalition Against Sexual Assault, and The County Sheriffs of CO. Funded through the STOP Violence Against Women Act, grant # DOJ 2008-WF-AX-0003, this nationally recognized project has been offering training and technical assistance to communities in Colorado since 1996.

To Register For This Training:

Call, Fax or Email Danielle Olson, EVAW Training Coordinator

Phone: (303)830-9115 dolson@evawproject.org Fax: (303)830-8378

Name: _____

Agency/Position: _____

Address: _____ City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____